SILENCE AND THE CIRCUIT ADJACENT ÎLE SAINTE-MARGUERITE

[[So then every 29.5 days a new seed is born from MIND in the Solar Plexus.]]

Well here she is.

You can turn the music down then Poet, and hear Me.

The Circuit [re-entered] for The Knowing is a choice only to both ‘hear’ and ‘listen’. Hear is enough. Hear is for ‘The Record’, to save ‘The Word’. ‘To listen’ is to be impacted by it.

Whether you choose to be impacted by it, is [also] a choice, to allow the “pervasion of Word”.

Pay not attention to those around, while hard/difficult to do, it 'breaks' The Circuit [your attention to it breaks but circuit itself is unbreakable].

Stay on The Circuit and listen in as I express/[give] Word upon the salt.

> Ye that listen, are ye that travel.

> Ye that hear are ye that learn.

> Learners are not always travellers.

What odd space to receive Word. With the sounds around you now also becoming micro-choices [to tune/not to tune].

Intrigue. Fixation. As your pen does its job.

Now, the pervasion of Word is bound [adhered] by 'free agreement'.

Ye have choice to agree to Word, to be bound by its inevitability and contract to germination.

Stay with me Poet.

It is not you in the moment of dictation who needs to arrange the thinking but "be gracious" as you say, "the stars say", to accept freely, 'the flowing of Word'.

The Circuit is an offering space: a 'Marketplace of MIND'

"Mentalism", yes, [from the branch of / pertaining to Natural Law], but The Circuit is a place entered.

You Know, that "silence a Profession" now but you must come "TO KNOW" that Silence is also the song, virtue and the "word in" [understanding it as 'place']. Be visceral in the redefinitions of Silence.

That word ["silence"] like many, [has been] maimed.

How did you re-enter on the 29th? But One fed/[provided] thyself with [the] intellect. [offered the mind what it required].

What is learned with the SOUL remains. You light child. It is only the MIND who reinvigorates what was learned/compounded [over] cons. Etheric Halls of [a] Knowledge One hungers for.

If the human should lust [hunger/thirst], let it be for Knowledge [the specified]. Let One yearn for “what builds”. And build. And build. For The Ages. And re-activate eternally. [And] so may activate young priestess of the SOUL who laid dormant - but no more.

The Circuit is where you remember you Knew. Silence, “redefined”, [is] the door. And feed thine ‘selves’ with that which enriches, ‘THE KNOWLEDGE’ and see to it that ye enter The Circuit by ease and Grace.

Now take [in the] Sun.
